The Union Stock Yards—Cost of Construction, $1,675,000.

In reviewing the Live Stock trade, it is gratifying to us to note the steady and healthy progress making as the recognized centre for supplying the beef-eating districts of the country—and a growing merchant of this commodity—and a few years since the Live Stock trade of this city was but a comparative trifle. Now it is one of the most important features of our commercial life, and for supplies it has the most developed of the North-western States, but quite a share of the trade from Southern Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, and even Kentucky and Tennessee, is drawn to this point for purposes of sale and shipment. This will be seen by the following tables, which, in the opinion of the writer, are more reliable than any that have appeared in the columns of the surrounding newspapers, for the reason that they are compiled from the books of the Union Stock Yards Company, and are still increasing.

YIELDS IN FOOD.

The following table may be relied upon as showing the number of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses received in the city, and the number left in it by the year, from 1852 to 1868, inclusive. Previous to the former year no reliable data can be obtained, as no account was kept of them:

Year.	Cattle.	Hogs.	Sheep.	Horses.
1852	17,741	88,000	1,000	1,000
1853	25,000	100,000	2,000	1,000
1854	30,000	150,000	3,000	1,000
1855	40,000	200,000	4,000	1,000
1856	50,000	250,000	5,000	1,000
1857	60,000	300,000	6,000	1,000
1858	70,000	350,000	7,000	1,000
1859	80,000	400,000	8,000	1,000
1860	90,000	450,000	9,000	1,000
1861	100,000	500,000	10,000	1,000
1862	110,000	550,000	11,000	1,000
1863	120,000	600,000	12,000	1,000
1864	130,000	650,000	13,000	1,000
1865	140,000	700,000	14,000	1,000
1866	150,000	750,000	15,000	1,000
1867	160,000	800,000	16,000	1,000
1868	170,000	850,000	17,000	1,000

The receipts of live stock during the year 1868 were 1,000,000 head, as will be seen by the above table. Up to the opening of what is known as the Southern Exposition, in 1854, the receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses had reached but little more than 100,000 head. Since that time the increase has been steady and healthy. The market for the year has not been disturbed by any unusual influences, such as the late Chicago fire, which, in 1871, will be the only one in the history of the city. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1868 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1867 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1866 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1865 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1864 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1863 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1862 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1861 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1860 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1859 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1858 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1857 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1856 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1855 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1854 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1853 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head. The receipts of cattle, hogs, sheep, and horses for the year 1852 were 1,000,000 head, and the shipments, 1,000,000 head.

A TRAGICAL FIGHT.

Another Ex-Police Officer in Trouble.

Not who have some claim to be on the police force, or who have had a general time of it, coming into notice. The latest was reported yesterday morning, when Henry Owen was brought before Justice Summerfield. Henry has been heavily tapping a saloon on Canal street, near Mitchell, and, having a weakness for whisky, he got a little too much of it on board, and, as a consequence, he became very quarrelsome. He was arrested, and the charge preferred against him was that he had assaulted one Thomas Hughes, a boarder in the saloon, on the previous evening, and, in addition to the assault, had also robbed him of $1,500 in money. Hughes, it appears, had been in the saloon, and, having a large sum of money on his person, he was induced to go to bed in the upper part of the house, and, while he was asleep, Owen entered the room, and, taking the money from his pocket, left the house. Hughes, on awaking, missed his money, and, suspecting Owen, he charged him with the robbery. Owen, however, denied the charge, and, in fact, he was not arrested for it, but for the assault
